

ORGANIZATIONAL COMMUNICATION
COLLEGE OF ARTS, HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES
LEADING TO THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTS

PURPOSES

The purposes of the Department of Languages and Communication are:

1. To prepare students for the modern workplace or doctoral study.
2. To provide training in communication theory and skills.
3. To acquaint students with the latest communication technologies.
4. To provide students with training in interpersonal communication skills.
5. To provide students with knowledge about how communication works within an organizational context.

The Master of Arts in Organizational Communication with concentrations in health communication, public relations, news media, sociology, and marketing is designed to give communications students insights into communication problems and issues as they exist in those organizational settings and provide the knowledge, skills and tools to allow such to be addressed.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

To be considered for admission to the Master's in Organizational Communication, an applicant must:

1. Meet all university admission requirements.
2. Have a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree from an accredited university. It is not essential that the undergraduate degree be in communication. For more information, please contact the department.
3. Possess a cumulative grade point average that was used to attain a bachelor's degree of no lower than 2.5
4. Take the GRE (Graduate Record Exam) and attain the following minimum scores: At least 148 (55th percentile) on the Verbal section and at least a 3.5 on the Written section. These are minimum requirements and are firm.
5. For international students, when required, a minimum TOEFL score of 525 or a minimum internet-based TOEFL score of 75 must be attained.
6. Participate in an advising meeting with the graduate coordinator after completing the above requirements.
7. Obtain approval by the graduate coordinator, the Department Head, and/or the graduate faculty.

Please note that the Master's in Organizational communication does not accept students on a provisional basis.

REQUIREMENTS FOR DEGREE

The Master of Organizational Communication is a non-thesis degree, requiring a total of 36 semester hours of graduate credit. Twenty-seven hours make up Department of Languages and Communication core requirements and nine additional hours are to be taken as electives. The variety of courses included will allow the student to focus on a single area of interest. On the other hand, some students might wish to take a more general approach, spreading the electives over several areas.

All students must pass a written comprehensive examination. Successful completion of the exam will require that the student pull together in a meaningful way the major theories, knowledge base, technologies, and practices covered in the required courses. A committee of graduate faculty members will determine whether the student passes or fails the exam.
