

RAWLIN CARTER

Rawlin Carter was a member of the Louisiana Army National Guard in 1986 when he enrolled at Southeastern in the fall of that year. He began his military studies that year and advanced through the program attending the ROTC Advance Camp in the summer of 1988 at Fort Riley, KS. Due to illness, Rawlin was not able to continue his military studies. He remained in the National Guard where he completed his military obligation and received an honorable discharge. Rawlin then went on to pursue a successful civilian career with Prudential Financial. Rawlin and his family, which includes a wife and two teen-aged children reside in Madisonville, LA where they are active in their church and community.
