

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Do I need to purchase a cap and gown?

Students should purchase their cap and gown in order to take their senior portrait. Candid Campus will be steaming sets while you wait for your portrait sitting to help you look your best! All graduates participating in Commencement are required to purchase commencement regalia.

How much are cap and gown sets?

Depending on your degree type (undergrad, graduate, doctorate), cap and gown sets will run between $50 - $75. Caps and tassels can be purchased separately.

When can I buy my cap and gown? Where do I get it?

Caps and gowns can be purchased at Grad Fair prior to taking your senior portrait. You will be able to leave with your purchase (while supplies last). Students who do not attend Grad Fair can purchase their sets from the Bookstore after Grad Fair is over.

Can I get other regalia like stoles/cords at Grad Fair?

All students are eligible to receive a philanthropy cord when they participate in the Lion Legacy Donation Program at $50 or higher. Other regalia items will not be available at Grad Fair. Students should expect communications about these items directly from participating organizations and/or departments.

Do senior portraits cost anything?

Your photo session is completely free! Proofs will be sent to you via email within 7-10 business days. If you like your photo, you can then purchase photo packages directly from Candid Campus Photography.

What other costs should I expect?

Other items available for purchase include Lion Legacy packages, class rings, commencement announcements, and bookstore gear.

Is Grad Fair attendance mandatory to graduate?

While Grad Fair attendance is not mandatory for a student to graduate, it is highly encouraged! This is the only opportunity to take senior portraits, and students that miss this event will have to complete graduation tasks individually prior to graduating.

What if I'm unable to attend Grad Fair?

Students that miss this event will have to complete graduation tasks individually prior to graduating! For a complete list of tasks, visit the commencement website!

See you at Grad Fair!
